PRESS RELEASE

LINCOLN – Sue Sheppard, Town Administrator of Lincoln announced that the 2006 Town Calendars are ready for Lincoln residents at the Town Hall. This year’s calendar highlights our Town’s future – our children. Each month features children doing special activities. The calendar also presents monthly Town Board and commissions dates and times. Reference numbers for various municipal departments and other public organizations are listed in the front of the calendar.

Ms. Sheppard said. “The Calendar is free to all Lincoln residents and are available at the Town Hall and Lincoln Public Library. The cost of producing the calendar was paid entirely by the Calendar Sponsors with no expense to the taxpayers. I want to thank our generous sponsors for their continuous support.”

The Administration encourages all residents to pick up their copy of the calendar to keep informed on trash delays, public meetings, and state and federal holidays. Quarterly real estate taxes and water bill due dates are included.
