

OPENING FOR ZONING BOARD MEMBER

There is an opening for a Zoning Board Member from Council District 1 (Saylesville).

The duties of a Zoning Board are as follows: (1) hear and decide appeals from decisions of the Zoning Enforcement Officer (2) hear and decide appeals from an historic district commission (3) grant variances and special use permits upon application (4) act as the board of appeal for appeals from decisions of the Planning Board.

Experience that would be beneficial are understanding and making reasonable interpretations of regulations, and an ability to hear an application on a fair and impartial basis.

A background in Construction or building trades, Real Estate, or Legal would be desirable.
