

TOWN OF LINCOLN

Juvenile Hearing Board Member

The Town of Lincoln is currently accepting applications for appointment to the Juvenile Hearing Board, in accordance with Lincoln Town Ordinance 07-12, Section 5-27. This is a volunteer position and applicants must be a resident of Lincoln for at least three years. Applicants should have backgrounds in the related fields of education, including probation, parole, human services, community youth services, clergy, law enforcement or judiciary. Residents who wish to apply may do so by submitting a letter of intention, along with a resume, by October 30, 2014, to Joanne McManus, Director of Personnel, Town of Lincoln, 100 Old River Road, Lincoln, RI 02865.